

Job 38:1-41
(The Lord Spoke)

Scripture Memory Guaranteed Version

The LORD spoke to Job out of the storm. He said

Who laid the earth's foundation
Who laid its cornerstone
Who stretched a measuring line across it
Who marked off its dimensions

Who shut up the sea behind doors
When it burst forth from the womb
Who said, 'This far you may come and no farther
Here is where your proud waves halt'

Have you ever given orders to the morning
Or shown the dawn its place
What is the way to the abode of light
And where does darkness reside
Can you take them to their places
Do you know the paths to their dwellings

Can you bind the chains of the beautiful Pleiades
Or loosen Orion's belt
Can you bring forth the Constellations in their season
Or lead the Bear with its cubs

Can you raise your voice to the clouds
And cover yourself with a flood of water
Who has the wisdom to count the clouds
Who can tip over the water jars of the heavens

Do you send the lightning bolts on their way
Do they report to you, 'Here we are'
What is the way to the place where the lightning is dispersed
Or the place where the east winds are scattered over the earth

Who cuts a channel for the torrents of rain
A path for the thunderstorm
Who fathers the rain
Who fathers the drops of dew

From whose womb comes the ice
Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens
Have you entered the storehouses of the snow
Or seen the storehouses of the hail

Do you hunt the prey for the lioness
And satisfy the hunger of the lions
Do you provide food for the raven
When its young cry out to God

Who has put wisdom in the mind
Who has given understanding to the heart
Do you know the laws of the heavens
Can you set up God's dominion over the earth

You are unworthy! You can't reply! How dare you question God!
